

GDACC VOLUNTEER INTEREST FORM

Name	Address	Town/Village
Phone:	Email

Projects	Interest ✓	Head group	What could you contribute?
Talk to friends neighbors about implications of drilling
Meet with legislators, local officials to express your concerns and provide them with information
Attend legislature committees, town, city, village meetings to provide information and influence policy (Great if we could have someone at every legislative committee meeting and every town board meeting)
Study state and federal legislation & regulations and communicate with policy makers on drilling issues
Study issues, Check out www.gdacc.wordpress.com Collect data, and write letters to the editor, reports, brochures, videos or prepare power-point presentations to educate community or policy makers.
Plan outreach activities
• Programs, speakers
• Tabling at events
• Help with contacting public officials
• Create publicity—ads, flyers, banners, signs, powerpoint presentations, videos, blogs, website
• Find venues for speakers, film showings
• Float for Dairy Parade
• Provide music or street theater for outdoor events
• Refreshments at events
• Other
Legal research
Donate to organizations that are providing advocacy, publication, legal help for communities and victims.
Work to educate particular groups: medical, health, real estate, business, civic, faith-based, outdoor enthusiasts, young people, etc.
Fundraising for publications, mailings, conference registration fees, advertising
Scientific research –establishing baseline data for water, soil, air
Education--develop curricula for elem/secondary, post-secondary education
Attend other regional meetings and report back
Economic/social impacts research
Organize a film showing at a library, club, church

Return as an attachment to mary.beilby@gmail.com or mail to 7 Broadway Av. Cortland, NY 13045
TAX DEDUCTABLE DONATIONS CAN BE MADE TO GAS DRILLING AWARENESS FOR CORTLAND COUNTY Make checks payable to "Sierra Club Foundation" with "Finger Lakes Group" in the memo line. Checks can be mailed to Paul Yaman, 1875 Lorings Crossing Rd. Cortland, NY 13045