Residents with expiring leases fight extensions

"I want my lease terminated, and the law provides a vehicle for me to terminate my lease and I need to see that through."

— Michael Bosetti
Virgil resident

Virgil resident's lease history stretches back to '02.

which governs gas lease terminations. This action effectively terminates the lease.

In addition, the law requires a gas company to notify a landowner when a lease is coming up for termination. But if a company does not do that, the onus falls to a landowner to notify the company of his or her desire to terminate the lease.

Scott Kurkowski, a lawyer with the Binghamton firm Levene, Gouldin and Thompson LLP, warns that people should never assume their lease has been terminated just because the end date has come due.

Kurkowski is suing Chesapeake on behalf of landowners who have received notices of lease extensions they are disputing. Some landowners...
To connect CDAC, email mstafford@cdac.com.

The new lease agreement provides the West County CAC with critical funding to support its programming and operations. The lease agreement includes provisions for the CAC to use the space for educational, cultural, and community programs. The lease also includes options for renewal and expansion.

The CAC is grateful for the support of the community and looks forward to continuing to serve its members and the wider community.

---

Mike Bosetti, a spokesperson for the CAC, said, "We are excited about the new lease agreement and look forward to expanding our programming and services. The CAC is a vital resource for our community, and we are grateful for the support of our members and the wider community."

---

The lease agreement includes provisions for the CAC to use the space for educational, cultural, and community programs. The lease also includes options for renewal and expansion.

The CAC is grateful for the support of the community and looks forward to continuing to serve its members and the wider community.

---

Mike Bosetti, a spokesperson for the CAC, said, "We are excited about the new lease agreement and look forward to expanding our programming and services. The CAC is a vital resource for our community, and we are grateful for the support of our members and the wider community."

---

The lease agreement includes provisions for the CAC to use the space for educational, cultural, and community programs. The lease also includes options for renewal and expansion.

The CAC is grateful for the support of the community and looks forward to continuing to serve its members and the wider community.

---

Mike Bosetti, a spokesperson for the CAC, said, "We are excited about the new lease agreement and look forward to expanding our programming and services. The CAC is a vital resource for our community, and we are grateful for the support of our members and the wider community."

---

The lease agreement includes provisions for the CAC to use the space for educational, cultural, and community programs. The lease also includes options for renewal and expansion.

The CAC is grateful for the support of the community and looks forward to continuing to serve its members and the wider community.

---

Mike Bosetti, a spokesperson for the CAC, said, "We are excited about the new lease agreement and look forward to expanding our programming and services. The CAC is a vital resource for our community, and we are grateful for the support of our members and the wider community."

---

The lease agreement includes provisions for the CAC to use the space for educational, cultural, and community programs. The lease also includes options for renewal and expansion.

The CAC is grateful for the support of the community and looks forward to continuing to serve its members and the wider community.

---

Mike Bosetti, a spokesperson for the CAC, said, "We are excited about the new lease agreement and look forward to expanding our programming and services. The CAC is a vital resource for our community, and we are grateful for the support of our members and the wider community."

---

The lease agreement includes provisions for the CAC to use the space for educational, cultural, and community programs. The lease also includes options for renewal and expansion.

The CAC is grateful for the support of the community and looks forward to continuing to serve its members and the wider community.

---

Mike Bosetti, a spokesperson for the CAC, said, "We are excited about the new lease agreement and look forward to expanding our programming and services. The CAC is a vital resource for our community, and we are grateful for the support of our members and the wider community."

---

The lease agreement includes provisions for the CAC to use the space for educational, cultural, and community programs. The lease also includes options for renewal and expansion.

The CAC is grateful for the support of the community and looks forward to continuing to serve its members and the wider community.